October 9, 2020

Specialization in Tour, Festivals, Concert, Nightclub Venues, Music, Movie & TV Production Sets.

As the Entertainment Industry gets back to business and we are all adjusting to the “New Normal” while making sure music events, movie sets and nightclubs stay COVID-19 safe for staff, crew and employees. mpm has implemented Certified COVID-19 Compliance officers specifically trained to work the delicate balance of entertainment and health safety for your best protection against virus infection on your concert tour, music festival, nightclub, music, movie & television set.

What is a COVID-19 Compliance Officer?

Our Certified COVID-19 Compliance Officers principal role and responsibilities include overseeing and monitoring employees, crew and cast ensuring safety protocols are taking place and are being followed. From start to finish some responsibilities include intake of medical questionnaires, temperature testing, contact tracing, overseeing and monitoring physical distancing, symptom screening, monitoring and testing, PPE and CDC disinfection protocols, Health Department requirements, PPE and CDC education, trained to resolve set, tour and venue COVID-19 related issue and COVID-19 CDC protocols for health safety.

COVID-19 Compliance Officers qualifications?

Our Certified COVID-19 Compliance Officers are trained and properly certified by OSHA (US Department of Labor), California Health Education Certified, John Hopkins Trained and World Health Organization trained with the additional experience and knowledge of working within the Entertainment Industry, making mpm a leader in providing competent officers.

How does a Covid Compliance Officer Help?

A Covid Compliance officer alleviates the COVID-19 safety burden for tour managers, producers, directors and venue & festival managers who traditionally share responsibility for safety. With the ever changing protocols and guidelines our COVID-19 officers are always trained and educated to the latest CDC guidelines. They help ensure your tour, set or venue have the highest safety measures in place, lowering the risk of infections and closure. Covid Compliance Officers should be included in the production planning process and be part of the everyday operation of tour, nightclub or movie set crew/employees.
