SUMMARY

Brook Lee Karner is a Miami-bred writer, director, and photographer who tells stories about queerness through tall tales of a facetious and lascivious nature. Through lowbrow filmmaking techniques and absurd characters, he conjures comically surrealistic worlds that are sexually charged and gender expansive. Karner has recently been recognized by ICG as an Emerging Cinematographer for his artistic achievement in Cinematography for his work on his master capstone project, The Coop.
