

Michael D. Denninger
michaeldenninger@gmail.com

305 20th Avenue
Vero Beach, FL 32962

516-234-0623 (h)
772-559-6258 (c)

WORK HISTORY

Indian River State College, Video Production Specialist

January 2008 – present

- Produce videos for faculty and administration of college
- Shoot video in studio and in the field
- Edit videos to create final product with music, voiceover, backgrounds, and overlays
- Operate full-functioning production studio with multiple cameras and a green screen
- Create podcasts with faculty and administration for classes

WPBF News 25, Editor

June 2007 – February 2008

- Edit packages, VOs and SOTs for air in a high-pressure newsroom
- Ensure all video is correct and in place for four newscasts daily
- Direct talent and staff in studio as floor director
- Operate four cameras on floor for four daily newscasts
- Ensure news rundowns are accurate and updated
- Check all lighting and sets in studio for proper operation
- Ensure microphones and IFBs are working properly for talent and that they are on for audio personnel

WWCI TV 10, Editor

October 2006 – November 2006

- Help find and organize news for nightly segments
- Film programming for station
- Interview people for news segments
- Edit programming for station using various programs such as Adobe Premiere Pro and Canopus
- Run filming in studio with multiple cameras using the Tricaster program
- Tape voiceovers for news segments
- Run master control room on an as-needed basis

SKILLS

- Working knowledge of Final Cut Studio 3, Avid Media Composer, Avid Newscutter, Avid Xpress Pro, Microsoft Office 2010, ProTools, ProCoder, Sorenson Squeeze, Juicer, Tricaster and many other programs
- Equipment used includes Panasonic HVX200, Sony Z1U, Panasonic SDX900, Ikegami HL-DV7w, Canon XL1, Canon XL2, Sony ENG cameras, Jimmy Jib Triangle, lavalier, handheld, and boom microphones, among other various studio and field equipment
- Took one year of television production in high school including on-air anchoring, camera work, editing and broadcasting

EDUCATION

Connecticut School of Broadcasting, Palm Beach Gardens, FL

July 2007

- Broadcasting certificate; Highest Grade Point Average and Most Dedicated awards
- Study radio and television broadcasting including editing, equipment operation, on-air talent, writing and producing
- 4.0 GPA

Barry University, Miami Shores, FL

May 2006

- Bachelor of Liberal Studies degree
- Major: Psychology
- 3.9 GPA

Indian River Community College, Fort Pierce, FL

June 2001

- Associate of Arts degree
- Concentration in Psychology and Film
- 3.0 GPA