

Diane Lorene Phelps

*Film * Television * Commercials * Print*

Costume Designer, Diane Lorene Phelps has many years experience freelancing on Feature Films, Television Commercials, Print Advertising Campaigns and Theatrical Productions.

Originally from Ohio, Diane is based in Florida and works throughout the US and the Caribbean. She studied filmmaking, fine art and fashion at the Universities of Oklahoma and Cincinnati and earned her bachelors degree in Creative Writing and Film Studies from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida. Her career in motion pictures began with freelance work in the industry and with private clients. Long active in the film industry some of her film credits include, "Edward Scissorhands", "Coupe de Ville", "America's Most Wanted", "Disney Channel", "History Channel's Spanish American War", "Misconceptions", "This Man's Life", "Burial at Sea", "The Glades", "Dolphin Tale", and over 300+ TV commercials and Music Videos. Diane's clients include many celebrities and national sports stars.

Please check out my IMDB web page at www.imdb.me/dlp . Also more examples of my work can be seen at www.youtube.com/user/stevetenderluv channel. The DNA Cell Phone commercials, Yeti and Shark Attack.

If you watch TV you will see about 25% of my work on air at any given moment. Just wrapped the Glades which shot in Miami, FL. For images and info check out youtube/ AETV and Sundays at 10pm on A&E.

Won a Crystal Reel award for best Costume Design for the film "This Man's Life". www.youtube.com/user/StarsNorth .

Recent work includes: "Dolphin Tale", by Alcon Entertainment. Check out the trailer at www.youtube.com search "Dolphin Tale".

I look forward to speaking with you about your project and how I can help you with your project.

Contact:

727-482-0802 * dianelorenephelps@yahoo.com